SPEAK

This summer, Kobe Means will find his voice

ABOUT THE BOOK

Fifteen-year-old Kobe Means has zero desire to follow in the footsteps of his famous father. Now, thanks to the pandemic, they've been stuck at home together for months, and Kobe has had enough. It seems the only way he'll get any peace is to find a way to speak up for himself. What starts out as a simple idea to get away from his dad and show some independence turns into his life changing in ways he could never imagine. This summer, Kobe will find his voice.
